

KING

DELIVERS A PERFUNCTORY SPEECH

AT THE OPENING OF THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

THE USUAL POMP DISPLAYED.

King Regrets That Boer War Has Not Ended—Member of Parliament Missing.

London, Jan. 16.—The beauty of the pageant attendant on the opening of parliament today was dimmed by a raw, misty day and threatening rain. The members began to arrive at midnight last night for the purpose of securing advantageous places. The Hon. Mr. Stowes-Cox the member from the Richmond 'division of Yorkshire, North Riding, was the first to arrive and by daybreak nearly a score were present.

By 9 o'clock this morning the crowds began to gather along the route from Marlborough House to Westminster. Next to the presence of King Edward the interest everywhere centered in Colonel Arthur Lynch, the newly elected member from Galway City, a warrant for whose arrest was issued in the Bow street police court yesterday on a charge of treason for bearing arms against the King. It is learned that Lynch was in Boulogne two days ago, but did not dare to cross to England. He said, however, that he would surely appear at the opening of parliament.

At 10:30 o'clock the sergeant at arms with a company of retainers performed the ancient ceremony of searching the parliamentary cellars for Guy Fawkes conspirators.

At 11 o'clock traffic was stopped through Westminster and two regiments of guards took up their positions to hold the line for the royal progress to the hall of parliament.

The initial opening of parliament to day was a grand pageant. Buildings and stands all along the route of the procession were filled with a fashionable throng. The royal procession left Marlborough House at 1:30 o'clock. King Edward and the Queen rode in the royal golden coach drawn by eight cream horses and were wildly cheered by the crowds. The royal cavalcade was met under Victoria tower by a score of titled equestrians, stewards, ushers and the Marquis of Londonderry bearing the sword of state, and also other notables carrying other parts of the royal regalia. The blare of trumpets announced the entrance of the royal party to the House of Lords. Everybody rose and bowed low. The King, assisted by the Queen, mounted the throne, other members taking chairs to the right and left of the throne. The black rod walked to the commons and summoned the members in the King's name. The speaker, followed by his chosen members, entered the House of Lords without the usual scrimmage, as four hundred commoners had been ruled out. The commons speaker and the King exchanged salutations and the King read his speech.

The King spoke as follows: "Since the close of the last session of parliament, I have had the happiness to welcome back the Prince and Princess of Wales on their return from a lengthened voyage to the various parts of my empire. They had everywhere been received by demonstrations of the liveliest affection and I am convinced that their presence has served to rivet more closely the bonds of mutual regard and loyalty by which the vigor of the empire has been maintained."

"My relations with the other powers continue to be of a friendly character. I regret that the war in South Africa has not yet been concluded though the course of operations has been favorable to our arms, the area of war has been largely reduced and the industries are being resumed. In spite of the tedious character of the campaign my soldiers have through out displayed a cheerfulness in the execution of the hardships, incident to the guerrilla warfare and a humanity, even to their own detriment in the treatment of the enemy, which is deserving of the highest praise."

"Lanky Bob" Talks.

New York, Jan. 16.—Bob Fitzsimmons makes an important statement today in regard to a fight with Champion Jeffries. He first declares he will fight the champion if he can get a backer. Fitz says: "Replying to Jeffries' statement that he has used every honest means to get me into the ring, I can say that I have never heard personally from either Jeffries or his manager. I did not intend to enter the ring again, but if Jeffries thinks I am dishonest or a bluffer, I will show him who is the quitter. If any sportsman will back me for $20,000 I will fight him, winner to take all. All I will ask is the purse."

TESLA

Will Soon Make Known a Novel Principle in Wireless Telegraphy.

So He Says.

New York, Jan. 16.—Nikola Tesla, the inventor was asked in his laboratory yesterday afternoon about progress in his wireless telegraph experiments. He said: "I am more confident than ever that when it is completed I shall give to the world as the first result of my labors in the transmission of power without wires to great distances, a system of telegraphy capable of infinite expansion and securing the absolute privacy of the messages. I shall shortly make known a novel principle which will to a little degree remove the popular belief that it is impossible to attain that degree of secrecy which is practicable with cables. I respect rigorously the rights of others and when I give my system to the world I shall ask the entire technical profession to point to any feature of my system which is not of my own creation."

BURGLARS

She Saw in a Dream Appeared at the Door Next Day and Demanded Food and Money.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 16.—Because of a remarkable dream police of the Forest street station kept an eye on the home of Thomas F. Tasker, mason contractor, and President of the Bricklayers' union all night. Tasker was awakened Tuesday morning by a piercing scream. His wife, half awake was sitting up in bed and trembling.

Mrs. Tasker told her husband that she dreamed she awoke to find two burglars standing over the bed. She described the mythical intruders. One she said, was a big man, with a black mustache and an unshaven face. He wore a double-breasted coat, and a cap was pulled down over his forehead. The other man, Mrs. Tasker said, was slender. His clothes were tattered, and his beardless face had the pallor of a consumptive. He wore a light overcoat and also a cap.

Tuesday afternoon there came a gentle rap at the kitchen door. Mrs. Tasker opened the door. There, standing on the threshold, were the two burglars, just as they appeared in the dream. Mrs. Tasker sank into a chair, while the big man with the black mustache and the double-breasted coat boldly entered the kitchen and demanded food. The woman gave him what she could. Then he demanded money. Mrs. Tasker gave him what change she had and the two men departed. Mrs. Tasker made her way to the home of a neighbor. The latter had seen the men depart, and also recognized them as the pair Mrs. Tasker had described as having frightened her in a dream. It was decided to tell the police and the latter are now watching for the men who were burglars in a remarkable dream and beggars in life.

The complaint gave a recital of alleged cruel treatment, and charged the defendant with being untrue to his marriage vows. Owing to the prominence of the parties the divorce created a sensation. The plaintiff is a sister of Mrs. Thornton West, wife of the publisher of the Indiana Weekly.

CASH

IS GONE AND MYSTERY NOW SURROUNDS TRAGEDY.

THREE POLES ARE NOW UNDER ARREST AT PITTSBURG.

FIVE PEOPLE FATALLY CUT.

Further Developments in the Frightful Pittsburgh Tragedy—Officers Now After a Man.

Pittsburg, Jan. 16.—(Bulletin)—Vincent Visolek it is reported today has now confessed that he killed Rosa Lak and fatally wounded their three children.

Pittsburg, Jan. 16.—Today police opinion persists that the tragedy involving Rosa Leek, her three children and Vincent Visolek was not a family murder by an outsider, who also robbed the family. There is no trace of the $1,200 known to have been in the woman's possession, and a boarder named Oksenski is still wanted by the police.

Pittsburg, Jan. 16.—There is much mystery connected with the terrible tragedy at 1909 Spring alley reported in these dispatches to the Advocate yesterday. On Wednesday it was supposed to be simply the work of a drunken man, Vincenzo Visolek, a Pole, but recent developments put a different light on it. A woman, Rosa Lak, was found dead and her supposed husband, Visolek, is dying, while three little children, aged 8, 5 and 2 years respectively, are fatally wounded. Visolek, it is said, was not married to the woman. The victims were horribly beaten with a rail cutter. At first it was supposed that the man while drunk had attacked the woman and children, and that the woman had defended herself as long as possible by striking the man with a knife.

Developments add mystery to the tragedy. The three Poles, who were boarders in the Visolek house, are under arrest, and the police are scouring the city for John Oksenski, who was also a boarder, but who has not been seen since the murder. It is learned that the woman had $1,200 on her person, and this is missing. Oksenski is accused of having set fire to a mattress in the house a week ago, and later Visolek tried to have him arrested because he had threatened to rob the house. When found the woman was lying across a couch which belonged to Oksenski, with her face and head battered almost to a jelly. Visolek's head was beaten in and his skull fractured. The children's heads were also crushed in, and physicians at the hospital say none of the injured can recover.

PRESIDENT MAY

TAKE ACTION.

Belief Gaining Ground That He Will Vindicate Admiral Schley in Some Manner.

Fate of Two East St. Louis Children.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The opinion is gaining ground daily in semi-official circles here that President Roosevelt has about decided to do something for Admiral Schley. Men whose judgment he is in the habit of relying upon have told him very emphatically that the navy department had bungled and mismanaged the whole business, and the result was that today practically the entire general public was lined up in favor of Schley, with the navy department and a few of its supporters holding out against the Admiral.

THE LENTZ CONTEST.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The contest case of John J. Lentz of Columbus, against Congressman Emmet Tompkins will be heard on February 1. The committee on elections No. 1 has set the time for the hearing.

ARRANGED

Is the Great Three-Cornered Race Between the Famous Trotting Kings.

New York, Jan. 16.—Arrangements are completed for one of the biggest trotting matches ever known. Nearly $150,000 in side wagers will be involved. The match will bring together Thomas Lawson's crack Borlaima in a three-cornered race with E. E. Smather's Lord Derby and ex-Fire Commissioner Scannell's The Abbott.

Mr. Lawson's $5000 check, to be used as a forfeit, was received by the stake holders yesterday. The other forfeit has been up one day. The next thing on the program now is the race. Mr. Lawson has great faith in the speed of his Borlaima, and has said he will make the side bet as big as the other parties can stand.

NIXON PLANS TO GET YOUNG MEN

Proposes to Administer Organization for Benefit of Democrats of the Whole Country.

New York, Jan. 16.—Lewis Nixon who now sits in the leader's chair at Tammany Hall, sent a notice to most of the district leaders saying that he would like to have them call at Tammany Hall yesterday and have a talk with him. The only leaders who were not invited were several who live too far away to attend or are in the legislature.

Mr. Nixon made a little talk to those who came. He said that if they thought he was not the right man in the light place he wished they would say so, and tell their reasons. Mr. Nixon said that he intended to run the affairs of the organization for the benefit of the party in the whole country, and that he wanted all of the leaders to pitch in and help him.

Mr. Nixon's longest conference was with John F. Carroll. All of the old-line leaders were very cordial in their greeting to Mr. Nixon.

After the meeting yesterday Mr. Nixon made the following statement: "Nothing of consequence was done at the meeting. I saw most of the leaders there and it was agreed to have a little talk. It was all informal. I simply asked the leaders for suggestions on two points, one as to the best way of getting young men into the organization, and the other as to the best way of keeping alive the interest in the organization. Later in the week the leaders will make a report to me as to the condition of affairs in their districts."

"All of them agree with me that all the young men who fail to join the organization should be encouraged to do so. This week enrollment blanks will be sent to them, and they will all tell me just how the new plans that we have under consideration are working."

St. Louis, Jan. 16.—John and Henry Kander, aged respectively four and two years, sons of Stephen Kander of East St. Louis, perished as the result of a fire that destroyed their home. The other child was burned to death. The bodies of both children were rescued by a fireman who was almost suffocated.

To Be Taken to Texas.

Kansas City, Jan. 16.—John P. Withers, former president of the National bank of Beaumont, Tex., who is charged with embezzlement and mismanagement of the bank's funds, is still in the custody of the United States marshal in this city. Mr. Withers has taken no steps to obtain his release on bond. An order will probably be given to take Withers to Texas where he will, it is stated, give bond for his appearance. Mr. Withers has retained counsel, who discuss the case with United States Judge Phillips but without apparently arriving at any conclusion.

What is said to the first have been brought into the United States reached Chicago from the east of the Mackenzie river, far within the Arctic circle, last week.

FAILED

TO HEAR FROM HIS WIFE AND HIS BODY

WAS AFTERWARDS FOUND IN OHIO RIVER.

POISON BOTTLE WAS NEARBY,

But All His Money Was Gone—Business Partner Killed Himself Some Time Ago.

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 16.—Yesterday the body of Sturgess E. Jones, of Roanoke, Va., was found in the Ohio river in less than two feet of water, 50 yards below the city wharfboat.

Directly above the wharfboat in a small craft was his hat, an empty money purse, a pint bottle half filled with whisky and an empty two ounce vial which had contained chloroform.

Was Mr. Jones drugged and robbed and his body thrown into the water, or did he end his earthly career by leaping into the river? are problems that the officials and detectives are trying to solve.

The dead man was an attorney at Roanoke. He was active in Democratic politics during the last campaign, stumping West Virginia for Bryan. He had served two terms as Mayor of Roanoke. Less than a year ago he went to New York city and engaged in the machinery business with C. H. Vines. Mr. Vines a month or so later committed suicide.

Mr. Jones came here less than a week ago from Parkersburg, and had been looking after some important business matters.

He had considerable money on his person when he left his hotel, but on the body there was not a penny. He was seen last alive just before midnight, lunching at a restaurant.

He was in an unusually happy mood about the lobby of the hotel. Only once did he seem melancholy, and that was when the mail failed to bring a letter from his wife which he had previously told the hotel clerk he was expecting. Mr. Jones carried insurance on his life in the Knights Templars and Mason's insurance company of Chicago. He was a prominent Royal Arch Mason, and this order is lending every assistance to the officials in ferreting out the mystery surrounding his tragic death. His body was shipped to Roanoke today for burial.

EXPENSIVE EMPIRE BUILDING.

"Imperialism is causing Great Britain a terrible price. The Anglo-Boer war has been going on for some two years and three months, and this is what it has cost Great Britain up to this time:

Total deaths from all causes....19,430
Total sent home as invalids....64,330
Total expenditures to end of fiscal year.....$750,000,000

Even if the conquest of the two republics were complete today, Great Britain would have paid nearly $5,000 per square mile for the 163,500 square miles of the annexed South African territory, and more than one British soldier has been killed, maimed or invalided for every Boer soldier put in the field.

Perhaps this is not a price that "staggeres humanity," but it is certainly one that staggers the British people.

We are in receipt of the first issue of the Coshocton Democrat and Standard, (consolidated) which comes to us in the form of a seven-column, eight-page paper, printed twice a week. The new paper is a culmination of a prolonged effort to consolidate the two Democratic papers in Coshocton. The gallant Democracy of Coshocton county are to be congratulated on the accomplishment of a long desire on their part to consolidate the two papers into one and thus remove all cause for factional divisions in the party. The new paper is handsomely printed, neatly and systematically arranged in every department and the editorial columns display unmistakable evidences of ripe experience, good judgment and first class ability.

Admiral Schley outshined Roosevelt at the diplomatic reception at the White House. The ladies and the dignitaries present paid more attention to Admiral and Mrs. Schley than they did to President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Is this not unfortunate for Schley? Will there not be another dissenting opinion from the master of the White House?

On the occasion of Rear Admiral Schley's forthcoming visit to Louisville, Jan. 29 and 30, he will be entertained by the board of trade and the Louisville and De Molay Commandery Knights Templar. The first named organization will hold a public reception in honor of the Admiral.

Trusts Outdoing Dingleyism.
(Philadelphia Record.)

When the Dingley tariff was arranged its authors provided in it a means of qualifying its most repulsive features by providing for the negotiation of reciprocity treaties. The Republican party in convention indorsed the policy thus set forth and hailed protection and reciprocity as twins. President McKinley did his best to keep faith with the people. But the trusts have become more powerful than their creators. They refuse to keep the promise of the Dingleys and McKinleys and insist upon their pound of flesh.

Tariff Leeches Insatiable.
(New York Times.)

The history of tariff legislation is full of instances in which the beneficiaries of tariff discrimination have asked for more. We do not recall a single instance in which any considerable number of them have consented to give up what they had. There have been individuals intelligent enough to do this, as Mr. Carnegie now is ready to do it with reference to steel and iron. But there has been no class of tariff favorites who have been willing to give up a stiver of the advantage they have received at the expense of their fellow citizens.

The Consent of the Governed.
(Philadelphia North American.)

If the United States is to purchase the Danish West Indies it should be with the consent and approval of the inhabitants of the islands. We have come into possession of several islands of recent years without consulting the wishes of their peoples, and the bargain has resulted in mutual dissatisfaction and loss. The Danish Islanders are too few to cause us much trouble if we take them over, but few as they are, they are entitled to the moral rights which are the basis of our own government.

Barren Ad Costly Victory.
(Philadelphia Times.)

That the war in South Africa is now actually approaching an end is probable. But the end will come only in the absolute exhaustion of the Boers. Their whole fighting force was small at the outset and cannot be re-enforced. The British can still make good their losses; the Boers cannot. There must come a time when they can no longer put an organized command in the field. But what a barren victory will be thus won in the end from an exhausted people in a devastated land!

KING.

"The necessity of retiring those of my troops who most felt the strain of the war, has afforded me the opportunity of again availing myself of the loyal and patriotic offers of my colonies, and further contingents will shortly reach South Africa, from the dominion of Canada and the commonwealth of Australia and New Zealand.

"On the invitation of the King of Belgians, the international conference on sugar bounties was recently re-assembled at Brussels. I trust its decision may lead to the abandonment of the system by which sugar producing colonies and the home manufacturers of sugar have been unfairly weighted. In the prosecution of this most important industry I concluded with the President of the United States a treaty, the provision of which will facilitate the construction of an inter-oceanic canal, under the guarantees that its neutrality be maintained and that it be open to the commerce and shipping of all nations.

Proceeding the King referred to India. The rain fall there he said had been insufficient, necessitating a continuance of the relief work in certain provinces, though it would not be on as extensive a scale as in 1901.

The service estimate for the year, the King said, would shortly be laid before the house. They had been framed as economically as due regard to their efficiency rendered possible, in the special circumstances of the present exigency. His majesty indicated that proposals would be made during the session for the co-ordination and improvement of primary and secondary education; for the administration of the London water supply; land purchases in Ireland; improvement of the law of valuation; amendment of the law for the sale of intoxicants.

Washington, Jan. 16.—A large number of Cubans and delegates of the New York produce exchange, favorable to reciprocity with Cuba, were before the ways and means committee of the House today. Even Thomas, President of the New York Produce Exchange, said: "Refusal to grant a reduction of duty on sugar and tobacco will result in ruin to the planter, bankruptcy to the merchant and distress to the laboring masses of Cuba, followed by serious industrial disturbances and disorder, which will in the end work injury to our export trade."

Rathbone's Story.
Havana, Jan. 16.—When the trial of the charges growing out of the Cuban postoffice frauds was resumed here, Estes G. Rathbone, pay director of the posts of Cuba, was examined on the matter of having paid for furnishing his official residence in El Cerro, Havana, from the postal accounts. Rathbone said that he believed that such bills should be so charged, that all vouchers for furnishing this official residence were indorsed, and that all the furnishing were accounted for and afterward returned to the government. He said the salary of his coachman was paid from the postal funds, and that when ex-Postmaster General Smith came to Havana he rode in Rathbone's carriage, and that at Smith's suggestion he (Rathbone) bought a uniform for his coachman from the postal funds. The government has disallowed these accounts, charging them against Rathbone.

Schley Resolution.
Jackson, Miss., Jan. 16.—Both houses of the legislature unanimously adopted a resolution declaring Rear Admiral Schley to be the rightful hero of the battle off Santiago, "and entitled to the unflinching gratitude of his country." The resolution indorses the report of Admiral Dewey in the Schley court of inquiry, and condemns the majority report of the other members constituting the court. By the same resolution the legislature extends a cordial invitation to Admiral Schley to visit Jackson and receive "public manifestation of the exalted respect, confidence and admiration in which he is held by people of Mississippi."

Anthracite Grievances.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 16.—At the sessions of the United Mine Workers' convention, district No. 1, resolutions were forwarded to the secretary of the national convention of miners which will meet in Indianapolis next week, requesting that body to send notices to all the operators in the anthracite region requesting them to meet the miners in joint conference, to consider the grievances promulgated by the Hazleton convention. The most important of these grievances relates to an eight-hour day; coal to be mined by the ton instead of the car, and recognition of the miners' union.

Sheriff Smith was appointed from Norman, Okla., where he had been on the sheriff's and marshal's forces a number of years. A number of murders and robberies are charged to the gang that murdered the officers.

Galveston, Jan. 16.—The shipping men of Galveston do not believe that the horses and cattle reported to have been seen on the Texas coast by Captain Peterson of the schooner Olga were from a British transport. They say that if the transport was three days out from New Orleans it would be near the Florida coast, and that should any mishap befall the transport, causing mules or horses to be lost, the carcasses would be taken to the Florida and not the Texas coast.

A NOTED PHYSICIAN

Makes an Important Statement of Interest to All Women.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—The honest, intelligent physician is above the 'School.' Whatever is best in each case should be used, no matter to what school a physician belongs. I, as a matter of conscience, can only pro-

Dr. W. W. Wanta, of Lansing, Mich. prove the best, and as I know and have proven that there is nothing in Materia Medica which equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female disorders, I unhesitatingly prescribe it, and have never yet been sorry. I know of nothing better for ovarian troubles and for failing of the womb or ulcerations; it absolutely restores the affected parts to their normal condition quicker and better than anything else. I have known it to cure barrenness in women, who today are happy mothers of children, and while the medical profession looks down upon 'patents,' I have learned, instead, to look-up to the healing potion, by whatever name it be known. If my fellow physicians dared tell the truth, hundreds of them would voice my sentiments."—Dr. W. W. Wanta, Lansing, Mich.

Thos. J. Irwin, Martins Ferry, great chief recorder; H. N. Clemens, Cleveland, H. M. Innis, Columbus, U. H. Hester, Van Wert, and Evan Thomas, Coalton, great representatives.

Urbana—It develops that the grand jury returned an indictment against Frank Aldridge, the noted confidence man who is alleged to have committed suicide at his paternal home in New York city a few days ago. The indictment was returned on Aldridge's alleged connection with the sale of a gold brick in September, 1887, to Harvey Kenton a wealthy farmer of this county. Kenton lost $2,200 by the swindle and in addition a lot of money he paid for detectives.

Mansfield—Soon after she had heard a report that her husband was dead, Mrs. Wm. Piper was called to the telephone and her husband told her he was all right. She thought some of the telephone employees at Butler, at which place he was working, were trying to mislead her and would not believe that he was alive so he hastened home on a train to reassure her. Who sent the false report of his death is unknown.

Chillicothe—The police here are on the lookout for "Jack the Kisser." Twenty women have complained that he grabbed them on the street and compelled them to submit to his osculation.

An Indication of Nervous Trouble.

A headache is simply an indication that some part of the body is deranged, usually the stomach or nervous system. Clinch Headache Waters cure by relieving those conditions. Never fail. WATCH DOGS.

Ever on the Alert—Alive to Every Form of Oppression—Kept on Edge. Burdened Beyond Endurance—Nerves Give Out.

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, bring about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength—weakness, languor, headache, sleeplessness, etc. Whatever it is, nerve force is lacking and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in Newark vouch for this. Among them is Mrs. L. McFarland, of No. 40½ South Second st., Newark, Ohio, who says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are a fine nerve tonic. They make ones nerves strong and steady, their sleep natural and their strength good where one is weak, nervous and sleepless. The Nerve Pills are just the thing and I shall keep Mr. Bricker of the City Drug Store in mind should I need more."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 c. a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package. 2451

AMUSEMENTS.

The latest comedy success "David Harum" is Charles Frohman's offering at the Auditorium tonight. All the world famous characters of the novel David Harum have been retained in the comedy that has proved as great if not greater success than did the novel itself. The play is said also to reproduce the many bits of action that filled the book from cover to cover and the three acts are a constant bit of change from the rise of the curtain on the first act to its fall on the third. The characters in the novel are so true to life that they were easily reproduced and embodied by the clever comedians engaged by Mr. Frohman, but the incidents of Harum's life required much skill and experience to fit them into a consecutive story told in three acts. All of the incidents were distinctly dramatic, notably the one in which David Harum recounted the experiences of his childhood his attending the circus and the loan of ten cents which had started him in life but there were stage limitations which caused the wise ones to predict that the novel would fail before the footlights. The very first night at the Garrick settled the long mooted question once and for all and the wise ones felt foolish. As each character entered on the scene he was hailed as an old acquaintance. Zeke Swinney the pillar of the church was the picture as drawn by the novelist. Chet Timson the self important book keeper and cashier of David's bank, Deacon Perkins who was soon to buy the horse that would stand without hitchin', Bill Montague who was to be slugged and thrown out by the aroused Harum, Dick Larabee the banker's accomplice in his horse trading deals, The Widow Cullom, Aunt Polly Bixby, and all were there. The two about whom the plot was to be woven, Mary Blake and the young New Yorker were the most difficult for the dramatist as their love episodes in the novel were few and far between but a decidedly novel treatment was given to the love story and the success of the comedy was never in doubt from the end of the first act when the characters had been introduced in the flesh and the drift of the plot was taken in. DEMOCRATS

Holding a Meeting at Columbus—A Proposed Permanent Organization in This State.

Columbus, O., Jan. 16.—The meeting of prominent Ohio Democrats to consider the subject of a permanent Democratic organization to operate from headquarters in this city all the year around, is in session at the Neil House this afternoon, having been called to order at 2 o'clock by Chairman Frey of the Democratic State Central Committee. Mr. Frey is an enthusiastic advocate of the project.

The response to the invitation has been encouraging. A plea for party harmony will be made. Among those who accepted invitations to attend, most of whom are present, are Mayor Johnson and Charles P. Salen of Cleveland, N. D. Cochran of Toledo, James Ross, R. M. Ditty, Allen W. Thurman, and John J. Lentz of Columbus, Charles W. Baker, Louis Remelin and Louis G. Bernard of Cincinnati, John Stang of Zanesville, W. S. Finley of Kenton, W. S. Thomas and John L. Zimmerman of Springfield, A. W. Patrick of New Philadelphia and John C. Welty of Canton.

The discussion will continue until late this afternoon and there will be a night session tonight and probably an adjourned meeting tomorrow. Judge R. M. Ditty of Columbus, is a candidate for secretary of the new central organization, the most important position to be filled.

PANAMA

People Can't Give a Clear Title Thus Invalidating the Whole Offer.

Washington, Jan. 16.—It now transpires that the French holders of the Panama canal cannot give a clear title to the Panama canal since the Panama railway company is one of their assets and this is largely held by Americans who refuse to include it in the sale to the United States for $40,000,000. This invalidates the whole offer, as the United States would not accept the canal without the railway.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The Senate committee on Philippines today agreed on the provisions of the Philippines tariff bill. It makes a reduction of 25 per cent on all products of the island entering the United States as compared with duties upon like articles imported from foreign countries.

Because of opposition of the Democrats of the committee action toward reporting the bill to the Senate was postponed until next Monday.

CONGRESS SETS DATE

For Memorial Services When Secretary Hay Will Speak—Pension Bill Passed—Reciprocity With Cuba—Proceedings in Congress.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The house passed the pension appropriation bill, which has been under discussion for three days, and then adjourned until Saturday. The resolution prepared by the special committee on the McKinley memorial exercises, providing for an address by the secretary of state, John Hay, in the hall of representatives, Feb. 27, was adopted.

Representative Babcock introduced a perfected bill intended to put all the products of the steel trust either on the free list, or to reduce the tariff so much that the difference in price here and abroad will be equalized. The measure presented is, Mr. Babcock believes, free from the objections to the bill introduced by him last winter.

Debate was caused in the senate by some remarks submitted by Mr. Hale, of Maine, in respect to bills relating to the formation of a naval reserve which he introduced. He took strong ground against the organization of a naval reserve, his comments being construed by some of the senators into a reflection upon volunteer soldiers and land militia. Half a dozen senators were on their feet in an instant to defend the volunteers and the national guard of the various states, and the debate took so wide a range that senators went back in their references to the days of the revolutionary war to seek illustrations for their arguments. While no action was possible at this time, it is likely that the discussion upon the measures, should they be reported, will be very lively.

Mr. Hale was of opinion that the United States was not likely, as a nation, to take much interest in the militia forces either of the land or of the sea. In time of stress he was certain that the country would be obliged to depend upon volunteers, called out in an emergency, or upon some form of compulsory service. England, he said, had "learned this lesson from her smallest and wisest war." Mr. Hale declared that England was about to resort to conscription to raise men to fight "a band of freemen thousands of miles away." It had been proved, he said, that naval militia was not a success. "If we have determined that we are to become a great war power, with a great army and a great navy, no system of volunteering will answer the purpose."

At the conclusion of the discussion Mr. Hoar introduced the following resolution:

MR. LEVINGSTON
Appreciates the Treatment He Received While Suffering From Smallpox.

(Communicated.)

As I was one of the unfortunate victims of smallpox and was confined in the pest house 28 days and as I have seen nothing in the papers from any one who was confined there, I thought a statement from me might be of interest to your readers. I was taken to the pest house, where Wm. Sasser was the nurse, with a well defined case of smallpox. I would say that the treatment I received there was the very best. Mr. Sasser did everything in his power for me and he certainly was the right man for the place. He was attentive, agreeable and very kind during my sickness, and as my case was the worst they had there, I think I am qualified to speak. No man could have discharged his unpleasant duty better than he did. I would say that we had plenty of everything to eat, well cooked. Everything was kept spotlessly clean and the treatment I and others received was the very best. There was nothing at the pest house for any one to be afraid of. I write this in a spirit of thankfulness to Mr. Sasser for his kindness to me.

PENDELTON LEVINGSTON.

Ohio Police Chiefs

Before adjourning to meet next year at Cleveland, the new association of Ohio police chiefs adopted resolutions calling upon the general assembly to enact a law making it a penalty of from 15 to 20 years for any person having a deadly weapon on his person in the commission of burglary.

Some of the chiefs wanted the penalty to also take in the forcible entrance of a dwelling at night time when the occupants are asleep and where a chair or other missile is used although it may not be considered a deadly weapon.

A very grave outlook confronts the directors of the London Missionary Society. They anticipate by the end of March an accumulated deficit of 50,000 pounds.

olution: "That the president, if in his judgment it be not incompatible with the public interest, be requested to inform the senate whether the department of state had any official information whether the British government exacts duties on goods intended for prisoners of war in Bermuda, in violation of article sixteen of the convention adopted at The Hague, which is as follows: 'Gifts and relief in kind for prisoners of war shall be admitted free of all duties of entry and others, as well as of payments for carriage by the government railways.'" In explanation of his resolution Mr. Hoar said that some charitable organizations in this country had sent supplies and comforts to Boer prisoners detained in Bermuda. Upon these supplies duties had been collected in contravention of The Hague treaty. He desired merely to ascertain whether the state department had been informed of the situation.

The rear admiral has not yet received written orders detailing him to act as the representative of the navy at the reception, but that matter has been agreed upon, and Secretary Long charged Admiral Evans with the preparation of a naval program for the reception. In view of the number of distinguished officers who are now reported to be about to accompany the prince on his visit, it is evident that Admiral Evans will require the assistance of a number of junior officers.

Mills are Crippled in Massachusetts.

Spinners Claim to Have Some Grievances.

Maynard, Mass., Jan. 16.—The Assabetz mills of the American Woolen company here are shut down, except in the carding and sorting departments, because the spinners have struck. The probability is that the entire mill will be closed until the spinners' grievances are adjusted.

This would make about 1,500 employees idle. For 20 years the company has been weighing the roping used in the spinning department with beam scales. This change, the spinners declare, make it necessary for them to work harder in order to produce a given amount of yarn.

Wealthy Men Have Forgotten.

Cleveland, Jan. 16.—Colonel Myron T. Herrick, treasurer of the McKinley Memorial association and president of the American Bankers' association, said: "There have been practically no contributions to the McKinley memorial fund from the men of wealth, or those at the head of our great commercial and manufacturing institutions, much to my surprise. They have left the building of this memorial to the wage-earners in factories, shops and stores, and to the school children, who are not faltering in this movement to express their love and confidence in William McKinley. These men of means who should contribute seem to have delayed or forgotten."

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ouseberry, of Mohawk, spent the day here on their way to Newark, where they will reside. Benjamin Franklin of Newark, was in town Tuesday to attend the annual meeting of the Coshoot National Bank—Coshooton Age.

MRS. EVA STAUGH IS GRANTED A DIVORCE.

Lyon-Letherman et al Case on Trial to Court and Jury—News From the Court House.

In the case of Eva Staugh against her husband, Edward C. Staugh, suit for divorce, tried in the Probate Court today, the plaintiff was granted a divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty and drunkenness.

COMMON PLEAS COURT.

The case of Joseph S. Lyon against Frank P. Letherman Etta Letherman, George W. Patterson, Robert Patterson, James Park Lyon, Rachel Lyon, Georgie Anna Davis and Frank P. Letherman, as executor of the last will and testament of Georgiana Lyon, deceased, is on trial to the court and jury today. The plaintiff says that he is the brother and sole heir at law of said Georgiana Lyon, deceased, and one of the legatees under her will. That she left a paper—writing purporting to be her last will and testament. The will nominates and appoints Dr. F. P. Letherman of Outville, executor.

Plaintiff says that the paper writing is not a valid last will and testament. That at the time of making her will, and for a long time prior thereto, she was seriously afflicted with physical ailments, and diseases and such physical disabilities and disorders as to weaken and impair her mind and memory; that she was incapable of transacting business; that Frank P. Letherman, for two or more years before the date of the will, had been treating her as her physician; that he took charge of her money and property and retained the same. That when she was in the condition referred to, he exercised undue influence and improper control over her, and procured to be executed the paper-writing referred to.

Plaintiff asks that the paper be declared not to be the valid last will and testament of Georgiana Lyon, deceased.

The defendants deny that she was incapable of transacting business, or of understanding the nature of her act in disposing of her property as she did; and assert that her mind was free to act, and that no undue influence was exercised.

A large number of witnesses have been subpoenaed on both sides, and the trial will take several days.

J. B. Jones appears for the plaintiff, Kibler & Kibler for defendants.

IN SHERIFF'S HANDS.

The fruit store of N. Criticos was closed on the 13th of this month by Constable Wulffhoop on several executions, and the property was taken from the Constable by Sheriff Anderson on the 14th on a writ of replevin issued from the Court of Common Pleas, Andrew Utrevic claiming that the property belonged to him, and not to Criticos. The property is still in the hands of Sheriff Anderson, no bond having as yet been given.

"Held Her Hand."

She turned and slipped her hand to me—A pretty hand it was, I swear! She smiled upon me glowingly, And turned and slipped her hand to me; I held it so none else might see! Her husband sat, grave visaged, there: She turned and slipped her hand to me—A pretty hand it was, I swear!

I held her hand. Ah, she was fair And pure in heart and young and sweet! I sat myself down in her chair And held her hand. Ah, she was fair—While she retired to prepare.

Thanks for the guests to drink and eat: I held her hand; ah, she was fair And pure in heart and young and sweet! I held her hand. Ah, she was fair—While she retired to prepare.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be lost forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The village council at their last meeting allowed a bill to Marshal Payne as "dog killer," and one to Peter Turner as "dog crippler." Payne and Turner were recently ordered to shoot all dogs found at large without muzzles and it seems that Payne was a sure shot. Turner always hit, but not in the place to kill instantly.

Henry C. Lindsay.

The Advocate on Wednesday carried to Senator William E. Miller the news of the death of Mr. H. C. Lindsay, the Zanesville architect. Mr. Miller spoke feelingly of the unexpected death of his friend, saying: "Mr. Lindsay was a very kind hearted man, a gentleman at all times, an entertainer without superior, a man with broad and liberal views, ever willing to accommodate his friends. He was public spirited and true to his friends, a Republican in politics, but I doubt if politically he ever hurt the feelings of a Democrat. He has done much for Zanesville and will be greatly missed." The funeral will take place in Zanesville at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

MAD DOG

CREATES A SCARE IN VICINITY OF DRESDEN.

Yellow Hound on Warpath Attacks Dogs and Cattle and Evaded Its Pursuers.

A dirty looking yellow hound brought terror to the hearts of a large number of the residents of near Dresden last Sunday forenoon. The dog which was mad, was first seen near Frazeyburg and Dresden road and passed the house occupied by Frank Shaw on the hill this side of Frazeyburg.

The animal was frothing at the mouth and gave unmistakable signs of having the rabies. A cow belonging to O. J. Compton was bitten by the dog and it was only chased away after great difficulty.

When near Dresden the animal took the Dresden and Irville road and as it passed down the road it set upon and nearly killed a dog belonging to Ger-shon Vandenberg and a dog owned by Dick Adams.

A number of the farmers of the neighborhood armed themselves and started in search of the mad dog.

It eluded its pursuers and was last seen about one mile from Dresden.

The dog answers the description of a yellowish hound that attacked a child in Cambridge last week.

IS IT KERNS?

Arrest in Connection With Alleged Theft of Jewels—Men in Trou-blic Down South.

New Orleans, Jan. 16—George I. Kline of St. Louis and Robert L. West of Cincinnati were arrested across the river, charged with robbing the trunk of T. E. Manners of Chicago of about $2,500 worth of jewelry. They are alleged to have represented themselves as Manners and another guest at the St. Charles, paid the bills and left with the baggage. They crossed the river in a skiff and were caught before the train came on which they expected to leave, through the watchfulness of a newsboy who had read the story in the newspapers. Later in the day Manners went over to identify the property, and Kline accused him of being a thief under an alias. The whole affair had a queer look. Manners was also arrested. The police suspect he is Kerns, the New York jewelry thief, and Chief of Detectives Titus of New York sent a telegram here which strengthens the idea. Manners claims that he is, with his father, in the pawn brokerage business in Chicago.
